Fancy telling people from aged care matters group you're nearly broke! You own a house in r [redacted] and a house in r [redacted]. Yep, you're struggling! That's so offensive to people who are broke. I won't write to you again and will happily fuckoff! ☑

I've just counted the number of times you've told me you won't write to me again (7). Nearly as many times as you've told me I took advantage of a vulnerable woman (10)!

janeyx sent you a Direct Message.

I was vulnerable! 11. I will have to block you after the screen shot incident, it was provocative. taking pot shots at grass roots advocates is very poor. And cutting and pasting parts of private messages on twitter frankly looks insane. You seem bitter , vindictive and aggressive. And not in a million years would I have lunch with people who have knowingly proctected organisations that have neglected and abused the elderly for years. When are you having lunch with George Pell?! Fucking off now

Plus I've handed the quote you sent me re Heather mansell Brown not being taken seriously to change.org. They are following it up and will be doing a press release. They said they are going to make a mountain out of it. And your name will be mentioned of course, Because the info came from you. Thanks for that nugget.

Mind you he feels no guilt or shame because he's implied Mummy and Grandma are sluts and therefore deserve to be used and abused by males. Isn't he a fine, upstanding pillar of the community? Has to make one wonder how often his/her spouse sports a black eye, a split lip, broken nose and a torso covered in bruises? Nothing like going a few rounds with the Missus and showing her who's the Boss Man. Reckon poor auld wifey might have had a few front teeth knocked down her throat.... that would account for those hideous, Luna Park style dentures that make Chad Morgan look like Brad Pitt!!! 🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔

No staffing hours have been cut , just shifts changed around as they have employed more care staff as well. So they now have more RN's, en's and care staff.

They also have clinical staff either care manager or clinical nurse there 7 days per week as more support for staff and residents.

Netty Elizabeth I thought that too Helen. The comment certainly had my antennas twitching! Not as if it hasn't happened before in a nursing home and I personally think it's a red flag indicating that something's NQR . I wonder whether the Royal Commission would consider it alarming. I mean any psycho with access to a drug trolley could draw up 50 units of Actrapid, jab the syringe into a place that's not usually seen and within minutes it would quite literally be "goodnight nurse). If the person had a serious co-morbidity, say coronary artery disease or a history of TIAs, the doctor writing the the death certificate would attribute the demise to a heart attack or stroke and no-one would be any the wiser!! Jolly scary in my humble opinion!!

Netty Elizabeth I do believe there was an extremely malicious and fallacious reference to ME publishing information about how to murder a resident/patient with insulin??? Yes, that's right.....in HELLO CARE. I don't think the person who made this outrageous statement and posted the letter on a public Aged Care website could have given much consideration to the consequences. Not only was I identified by name, the content was DELIBERATELY presented out of context, manipulated and made public to tarnish my professional reputation. I really don't feel that it should be let go, and when added to OTHER equally vindictive, untrue statements it becomes apparent that the author AND the website are both legally, morally and ethically culpable. You see this is what happens when people don't do their homework boys and girls. It's very important to read and familiarize yourself with facts children, otherwise you could end up losing all your pocket money. So DON'T be like Krunt, Ross, David, John and their many alter-egos. Just stay real and don't repeat naughty fibs or you could make some very nasty enemies 🐱🐱🐱

Billy Benson Well that is a bonus! The truth always comes out through hate because people become so filled with hatred that they don't see or can't see what they are spewing out to the public and it's usually personal hatred that ends up coming out. I personally would despise myself if I was as full of venom as they are. People usually attack people that they envy and will project their self hate onto their victim.

years and although I loved working with the elderly I detested the way he ran the company and the truly horrid, bullying, secretive culture that was encouraged by him and his cronies (executives). The only thing important to these people was the generating off profits and protecting their public reputation at ALL costs. There was never any appreciation shown or praise given, indeed one had only to make a suggestion or a complaint and you were assured of either being terrorised, abused and humiliated into resigning or you became the target of lies and accused of some fabricated, outrageous, completely untrue story that would give them a reason to sack you. It was extremely concerning to me that they didn't really want good, dedicated, highly skilled, honourable nurses.....they wanted compliance with their dubious demands and poor standards, and would favour and promote nurses who were to my way of thinking incompetent, lazy, cruel, obnoxious bullies who towed the line.....THEIR LINE! The things I saw would enrage the public, disgust and horrify them. I tried to advocate for residents and attempted to implement best practice guidelines but [REDACTED] weren't interested. After witnessing numerous premature and unnecessary deaths through "accidents" in addition to substandard care, I went to the Aged Care Complaint Scheme. The outcome was unbelievable with more than 26 terribly serious, shocking complaints found to be unsubstantiated. It was then I formed the opinion the Govt agencies and providers were scratching each other's backs. They are collaborators to this day!!! If only relatives knew the truth they would be mortified to hear what their loved ones endured.

As for [REDACTED] I believe birds of a feather flock together and just knowing they associate with each other professionally tells me everything I need to know. I really don't understand the admiration and high esteem in which she is held. If I was given the platform and contacts she has I'd be making damned sure providers were exposed and challenged. We don't seem to hear very much from [REDACTED] I find it extremely curious, but as I've suggested as a result of my own vile experience, the aged care sector is largely corrupt, and I tend to view anything pertaining to it through very skeptical eyes. I'm not alleging [REDACTED] engaged in any questionable, inappropriate behaviour but what I am saying is if [REDACTED] association with celebrities who have a high public profile, I immediately suspect he's attempting to ingratiate himself for nefarious purposes. I have no proof, only my experience to support my personal opinion. As far as I'm concerned I have very little time for [REDACTED] Grandmother would say, "a man is known by the company he keeps." That's enough for me to obtain an impression, and it's not favourable I can tell you.

Looking forward to we 3 members of the group telling our stories on national T.V. too! Yes, plenty to reveal, many evil people to expose..... not the least of whom is currently relaxing on a Queensland island making fragrant candles and bath bombs which were originally purported to be part of a fund raising effort to buy local oldies little gifts to brighten their day. This is the woman who made vicious, disgraceful, completely FALSE allegations about us (ACAC) on social media and attempted to ingratiate herself into the favour of Krusty the Clown, Dr Rusty PhD and another person who presents as an advocate for victims of Oakden based on abuse directed towards his parent by staff at the facility. All 3 claim to have experienced abuse and bullying at the hands of ACAC (as per letters to "F Care") but despite our constant suggestions to take legal action for defamation of character, none have availed themselves of this option. One has to ask oneself WHY, if they have a clear case against us? I have no hesitation saying all of us would welcome the opportunity to have the matter heard in a Court of Law, and be given the chance to reveal the TRUTH and the FACTS. From our own collective experience it has become apparent there is an element within the aged care sector, particularly advocacy, that is not as genuine, caring, honourable and dedicated to the cause as they would have others believe. It is this type of duplicity, self promotion and vested interest that we would very much like to see investigated, exposed and addressed. It's not our role to

The length some self-indulgent nutters will go to for attention, sympathy, pity, concern and approval makes me want to spew. No class, no dignity, no self respect, no boundaries, no remorse and no fucking idea exactly how SICK and pathetic they actually are.

The narcissistic, self serving, pretentious, histrionic Drama Queen will persist in making a fool of her-self time and again as she views others as gullible and far inferior to herself. They serve a very calculated purpose; to feed her overly inflated EGO!

She will post a ton of self pitying, attention-seeking quotes and make claims of being victimised to gain the sympathy she seeks from those who hang on her every fraudulent, manipulative and pathetic word.

This toxic, venomous, spiteful, damaged, conniving, dangerous piece of anima excrement will make every attempt to blame YOU, her victim, for the putrid, miserable, noxious mess that her life has become.

Thank you for your gratuitous opinion but given that you clearly have absolutely no idea about the vindictive, malicious, defamatory, psychopathic and unconscionable actions of the abovementioned mound of dog excrement, I'd like to suggest that you desist from making such judgemental, sanctimonious and self righteous comments. Obviously you have had little association with this toxic creature other than perhaps on her pathetic, deceptive, fraudulent, manipulative, joke of a website. You must be one extremely gullible woman to behave in such a defensive manner and show support for a person who is nothing more than a mentally unstable

CON ARTIST who seeks to extract money from anyone who falls prey to her lies, exaggerations and fairy-stories. I don't care a damn what your opinion is of me or anybody else because I know the truth and have pages of evidence that exposes your "guru" for what she really is. She's a loathsome, reprehensible, repulsive individual who uses the demise of her mother to prey on innocent people. I've asked her to sue our advocacy group and the individuals who comprise it, but she hasn't and she won't because defamation is based up the allegations being LIES and they aren't. She knows it, I know it and my colleagues know it too. Even the media have tired of her demands for money and the cheesy, melodramatic antics that she's well known for. So there you have it. Oh and one last suggestion, before you open your mouth and spew vitriol at people you have never met or had a conversation with, get your facts STRAIGHT or you run the risk of being placed in the same category as "the LOON".

Netty Elizabeth This is what I mean, why would a Catholic Priest (particularly right now) be asked (or volunteered?) to make a goodwill statement. As Susan asked, does the Catholic Church have anything "invested" in all of this. Maybe there is a literacy problem in that neck of the woods. All this noise from the Old Bus Driver, to a priest and a list of riff raffs etc. Where is the Board in all this, or are the Driver and Priest the spokespersons for this now. Nah, no shovels needed, all they have to do is keep on suing, talking, lying.....that old hole is just about too big to get out of now. Still cannot believe that these people think they can argue the truth and facts.Why on earth would any of them want to make fools of themselves ?

Check out this knob! It's not YOUR money to spend and say it anyway you like you still haven't answered the question of PERSONAL GAIN! So, did you just ADMIT to the COMMUNITY you are using THEIR money to line YOUR pocket. Of course you are going to spend funds how you see fit because you are one of the board members benefiting from it. They are PERSONAL lawsuits, not for the facility or on behalf of the facility the lawsuits are in HIS and the CCMS names.

Hahahahahahaaha, that's hilarious
Shaylee!!! He's of the opinion HE is "the Bison"?? Hell NO, there's only one Bison that leads the herd and one has only to LOOK at a photo to establish the identity of the thundering hooved bovine! 🤔🤔🤔🤔
 🤔🤔 I mean, seriously.....he doesn't realize?? I'll bet SHE'S not in any doubt

Heard talk in () about the CONFIDENTIAL meeting that was had between my mother and the facility when she resigned ... Now whoever is talking about it is in breach of confidentiality and I know who its and let me tell you if anything comes of this ie action from my mother we all know whose going to be taking the fall ... Just shut your mouth for once take some advice !!! You are single handedly making more trouble than you are aware of !!!

Edit: No I dont know anything about the meeting BUT when people ask you about it you know someones been talking ...

Netty Elizabeth I don't believe for one moment that they're envious. I think they're weak, pathetic, perverted, morally & mentally impoverished psychos who have an aversion to the truth and are out to diminish anyone who threatens their exposure as a couple of lying, conniving, duplicitous, unsalvageable, unredeemable mounds of human excrement. They should think about calling their pal in the frock to perform a cleansing ritual. One watery blast up the dirt track might be all that's needed? They're good at that so my papist friends tell me!!

Netty Elizabeth Don't forget they did have a doctor and nurse practitioner available to the facility until some idiot with an axe to grind told them their services were no longer wanted. Then to make matters worse some person with a fat arse and a bloated head to match decided to cast aspersions and publicly defame them. The allegations were absolutely vile and offensive.....no prizes for guessing who this bovine beast is! Hard to believe a fat cow like that has the nerve to condemn others when she has reputation for knocking around her puny little husband from here to kingdom come! What a hypocrite....and a vicious, violent one at that!

Virginia Teer The fact they have used the same name as the person who was charged with Child Porn, makes one wonder if there is not a close connection. Why else would it be done ??? Very sick, disturbed and dangerous. Funny thing is. posts on the "sickos"page have likes from old mate Mal . That critter obviously like to stick itself in anywhere it can !!!!

Netty Elizabeth I read the comment below on Robbo's site and had a really good laugh! He might think he's the Oracle, but let me tell you he's completely clueless and uninformed. He has ZERO knowledge about the processes that assessors use to establish compliance AND has not the remotest idea of how ACFI, the funding instrument for determining the level of care for a resident works and influences the financial contribution the Government is prepared to pay the care facility. I'm gobsmacked that Board and those closely associated with it have given permission for this individual to indiscriminately jaw off about issues of which he has no understanding! It's a dead giveaway that he/she is NOT involved in any way in the area of care delivery and manner in which it's financed. I found it particularly humorous that he believed my comments were in reference to Yallambie, and made to question the professionalism & integrity of the ACCC and staff at the facility. Oh and the claim that I was suggesting staff falsified the documentation at the nursing home.

Robbo, you are a PRAT, a fool and an ignoramus!!!! Just to educate you a little, I need to advise that ALL nursing homes are assessed for compliance via the use of DOCUMENTATION.....it's what our Government demands, you nincompoop. It's their bureaucrats who make these decisions and it's standard procedure throughout the entire country, FOOL! In response to your claim I'm alleging "the falsifying of documents by staff" at Yallambee, you need to pull your head out of your sphincter!! It is common knowledge that EVERY facility in the country maximises their resident's care needs in order to wring the last red cent from taxpayer coffers! It's no secret birdbrain! It's one of the issues that the Royal Commission will be investigating because it's RAMPANT across the board. It's encouraged by management for obvious reasons and to date it's gone unaddressed.....but not for much longer. I mean, how would I know if Yallambee staff falsify documents/ charts etc but given the statistics and personal experience I'd say it's 99.9% likely that staff HAVE manipulated these assessments to ensure optimal funding. That's just one example of corruption within the aged care industry although this is just the very tip of the iceberg. Check your facts, inform yourself and stop making laughable, fabricated, completely erroneous claims on topics about which you obviously have NOT the slightest knowledge. It makes you look like a histrionic, psychotic, gibbering village simpleton! Only an egotistical braggart attempts to speak on subjects they're unfamiliar with.....and YOU are just that. Get a life and desist from trolling, stalking, disparaging and vilifying people who are brighter, smarter and more learned than you purport to be! Your ignorance is an embarrassment to those who you claim to support & represent. Seriously, WHY would they acknowledge an association with a braggadocio bag of wind or are they all as puerile and fatuous as you????????? (Eye roll and head scratch!).

Eliza Dean Oh puhleeeese! Poor little bubbas have to go and tell Big Daddy what the nasty people have done and said about him! Grow up lunatic! So what do you think they're gonna do huh. Have us incarcerated in a death camp? Phone the Prime Minister and get him to bag us out in Parliament? How about they throw us in a dungeon and smack our little bums until they're raw and we beg for mercy? Perhaps a person to person call to Rupert Murdoch requesting a favour.....to slap our photos on the front of one of his gossip rags, accompanied by a juicy story claiming we terrorised, tortured and put a Satanic curse on the Board of Directors? Maybe a public beheading in Federation Square? A ritual stoning? Disembowelment?? I know, I KNOWget them to swing by your local Church and ask Father Ignatius Francis Finbar O'Malley if he's up to performing an exorcism on a group of demonically possessed advocates!!!! Mmmmmm, well come on Babeee Whimpee what the hell do you have in mind? I reckon I know exactly what you'd like to see..... floods of tears, red faces, wringing of hands, blubbering howls of denial and a fulsome apology interspersed with visceral sobs of embarrassment. Listen here, there is NOTHING you can do to save YOUR arses and that most definitely includes attempting to name, shame, belittle, vilify, disparage ANY of your adversaries. NO ONE CARES WHAT YOU DO wee man, it's all been done before and if ever there was a care factor, it's ZERO now! You can lament as much as you like, the Commissioners have way more to do than listen to your whining, whinging and inconsequential bleating about how offended you are at having FACTS pertaining to you and your slimy, squirming nest of vipers, PUBLICISED! You're one sick UNIT.....one chromosome short on the DNA helix!!! Seriously, who behaves like a 3 yr old and has tanties because they're pissed off at being exposed as the deadshit they are??? I'm just wondering how far this odd, juvenile behaviour is taken behind closed doors....."HIT ME MUMMY, I've been a bad, bad boy!" Yeh, you're a joke, a very sad and tragic one, but do persist in your quest for sympathy and REVENGE! Just remember one thing "kidlet", "A wise man will not risk anything that he's not prepared to lose indefinitely." Think on that IDIOT!

Virginia Teer OMG..that is gold ! For the uneducated, who might read this.....they'll be able to search the meaning of some of the big words you've used, won't they ? Silly me, of course they can.....that's how they've obtained the misguided information they already have.....IDIOTS. ps I am really hoping to be interviewed by the Prime Minister or any other person of power.....can't wait to be on the telly again.....hope it's on the ABC..... hope it's another 4 Corners story..... as an AGED CARE ADVOCATE !!!!! Accept it....you are all nothing but Redneck Hillbillies, who have pathetically tried everything you can think of to silence those who do know what you are about. Exit stage left !!! Take the fat arsed housewife with you !!!
